

Seach/Request : Update

The way requests are made has changed using the Kellyfin Enhanced plugin, users no longer need to login to requests, you simply search from the Jellyfin Search bar - if what you want is not already available, you can click request from there and a release will be available normally in a few minutes